Arajilla Retreat

LORD HOWE ISLAND LUXURY

Weddings

Renowned for its warm and friendly service and laid back ambience, Arajilla Retreat encapsulates the very essence of Lord Howe Island, offering guests a haven of tranquillity and peace. Perfectly positioned on the northern sheltered end of the Island's lagoon, nestled under a canopy of Kentia Palms and Banyan Trees just behind Old Settlement Beach, meandering pathways lead through native gardens to the beach, to the serene Ayurvedic Spa, to Arajilla's luxurious suites and renowned restaurant.

Explore the extraordinary scenery and wildlife of World Heritage listed Lord Howe Island. Be as active or as passive as you like. Walk bush trails, climb mountains, swim, surf, snorkel, fish, cycle around the Island, play golf beneath the mountains, lie on a deserted beach, enjoy a massage or treatment, savour fine food and wine. And it's all less than a two hour flight from Sydney or Brisbane.

EXTRAS

Traditional wedding cakes cannot be made at Arajilla or on the island. We suggest you make your own arrangements for a cake. We will assist you organising freight to the island with Australian Air Express. There is an additional cost.

There are limited flowers on the island. Bouquets and any table arrangements or decorations will need to be ordered from the mainland and freighted over.

We will assist you with information and bookings on all requirements such as celebrant, ceremony options and transport.

Legal INFORMATION

In Australia you are required to lodge a 'Notice of Intention to Marry' form with your celebrant at least one month and one day prior to the ceremony. Australian guests must have their 'Notice of Intention to Marry' form witnessed by a Justice of the Peace. Overseas guests must have their 'Notice of Intention to Marry' form witnessed by an Australian Embassy of Consular Official or a 'Notary Public'. The 'Notice of Intention to Marry' form is valid for 18 months. Fax or send birth certificates/deed absolute/passports ahead with your 'Notice of Intention to Marry' form but also bring originals to be sighted.

If the marriage is required within the stipulated one month and one day, permission must be gained from the Australian Federal Court to allow the wedding to proceed. The Marriage Act is a Federal Act and permission for special consideration may be lodged at a Registry Office or Court House. Fees apply.

The Australian Federal Court may waive conditionality should the following circumstances apply:

- Work or travel commitment does not permit for the marriage to take place outside one month and one day
- Attending guests are not able to travel within the legislative time frame
- Wedding guests and/or wedding parties undergo change in employment
- Severe or terminal illness affecting wedding guests and/or wedding parties

All under age persons (18 years) must obtain Federal Court permission to marry, preferably along with parental consent.

Divorced persons may lodge a 'Notice of Intention to Marry' 31 days after their divorce is deemed absolute. Divorce documentation must be provided to the wedding celebrant upon application.

Some couples from European countries (mainly Germany, Austria, Netherlands, Belgium and Scandinavia) who marry in Australia, are required to present an official wedding document upon returning to their home country. This information is then registered as legal documentation.
